THE LAW OF NEWSPAPER

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them till all that is due be paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the offices to which they are directed they are held responsible till they have settled their bill, and order their papers discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places, without informing the publishers, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The Courts have decided, that refusing to take a paper or periodical from the office, or removing, and leaving it uncalled for, is "prima facie" evidence of intentional fraud!

PROSPECTUS

For Publishing in the City of Washington Democratic Newspaper, to be called

'The Constitution.'

The undersigned having purchased the materials of the Spectator, will issue, on or before the 10th instant, the first number of a paper to be called the Constitution. It will be devoted to the steady advocacy of that system of measures which will preserve unimpaired the sacred instrument from which we borrow the name, and as constantly oppose whatever is not sanctioned by it. We shall unceasingly oppose a National Bank—a Protective Tariff—Internal Improvement by the General Government—a Distribution of the Proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands—Assumption of the State Debts—an abrogation of the Executive Veto, as unconstitutional and inexpedient. We hope to make the paper worthy of the confidence and support of the Democratic party. And we are determined to see whether a paper, conducted with a devotion to the principles rather than to men, of our party. The proceedings of Congress will receive particular attention and a full and comprehensive summary will be given, including the yeas and nays upon all important questions.

The paper, for the present, will be issued semi-weekly during the recess, and daily during the sessions of Congress, at five dollars per annum, in advance.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE.

MAGNIFICENT VOLUME FOR 1845.

Edited by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

THE new volume of 'Peterson's Magazine,' beginning with the January number, (which will be mailed on the 10th of December, 1844,) will be truly magnificent. The character and claims of the work are already known, but several new improvements, in addition, will appear so that it will be more than ever, the Ladies favorite. Among these are a series of National pictures, on subjects interesting in our history. The series of National pictures will be opened by a portrait in Mezzotint of Washington at eighteen, from a picture never before published; and will be followed by others of the character suggested.

Sartain's splendid Mezzotints. The most superb engraving ever sent from this artist will appear in the January number. Colored plates by Mr. Quarre, and some of the finest engravings on steel will appear during the year. The contributions will all be original, and from our best writers, of both sexes. We might publish old English stories, as others do, and save the money we pay for original articles, but we prefer to encourage our national writers, satisfied the public will appreciate us. No other two dollar book does this!

TERMS—One copy two dollars; Three, five dollars; Eight, ten dollars. The money to be sent in advance, post paid.

Prospectus

THE WESTERN LITERARY JOURNAL AND MONTHLY REVIEW.

A Monthly Literary Magazine, containing 84 large octavo pages of entirely original matter, emanating from Western writers, will be issued regularly from the first of November, 1844. It will be divided into two volumes per year of 384 pages each, or 768 pages at the end of the year. E. Z. C. Judson and L. A. Hines, editors. Robinson & Jones, 109 Main street, Cincinnati, Publishers. Price three dollars per annum in advance.

Newspapers giving this a few insertion will receive the magazine regularly. Edward Z. C. Judson and L. A. Hines, editors and Proprietors of the 'Western Literary Journal and Monthly Review,' a magazine of sixty-four large octavo pages, now in course of publication at Cincinnati, Ohio, are for an unexpectedly extensive patronage in the States of Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi, and at the general request of their kind patrons in those States have determined to issue a South-Western Edition of the Journal. It will be entitled the and will contain the contributions of the most eminent writers of the south and west; among whom we may mention, as already engaged, Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, Mrs. R. S. Nichols, Mrs. Julia L. Dumont, Miss Dupuy, Albert Pike, W. D. Gallagher, Thomas H. Shreve, Lewis J. Cist, C. B. Gillespie, Otway Curry, A. B. Meek, W. Gilmore Simmons, and many other notable and distinguished writers.

To aid us in our arduous task of issuing a South-western Edition in addition to our present number, we have secured the valuable services of Hudson A. Kidd, Esq., whose editorial office will be in Nashville. Messrs A. Billings & Son, Union street, Nashville, are publishers for the Editors and Proprietors.

The South-Western Literary Journal and Monthly Review will be under the Editorial supervision of E. Z. C. Judson and Hudson A. Kidd. All communications will be addressed to the latter gentleman at Nashville, or to Judson and Hines at Cincinnati, and must be invariably post paid. The Magazine will be afforded at Three Dollars per annum, which in all cases must be paid in advance.

Editor's office on Deadrick street near Cherry st. Publishers' office 100 Union st, Nashville.

Specimen numbers are now ready for inspection and delivery. All who are friendly to our own Literature and wish to encourage Literary enterprise in the south and west, are respectfully requested to call and subscribe.

Nashville, Dec 7, 1844

PROSPECTUS.

The subscriber commenced on the 1st of May, 1844, a monthly periodical, entitled

NED BUNTLINE MAGAZINE,

Edited by Edward Buntline, Esq., late of the United States Navy, devoted entirely to western Literature, of octavo size, containing 32 pages, and printed in a superior style, it is at once a cheap, and a desirable publication. Western writers of distinguished note, contribute monthly to its pages, and it is hoped that western people, will give it a preference over eastern works, and thus, not only encourage the talent in their midst, but cause their money to circulate amongst themselves, in preference to filling the coffers of eastern capitalists. The contents of this work will be biographies of distinguished men, historical tales and sketches, yarns of the sea, moral and scientific essays, army and navy news, poetry, critics, &c., mostly original.—It will be suited for the parlor and reading room, and will merit support.

Price $2 00 per year, payable invariably in advance. Persons forwarding a $10 00 bank note, current in this city will receive six copies.

All communications must be post paid or franked.

Editors inserting this Prospectus four times, will receive the work regularly for one year. E. Z. C. JUDSON, Publisher Dec 7 and Proprietor, Pittsburg, Pa
